To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in regards to Arizona Equine Rescue Organization. I have worked with AERO and Soleil Dolce for the past 7 years, and during this time have seen unmatched dedication to horses and their health, improvement, and overall well-being. This organization is professionally managed, and the facility is always neat and tidy, clean (manure hauled off), and the entire operation puts the safety of people and horses alike as top priority.

AERO does its best to see that horses have their needs met in all aspects, and appropriate veterinary care is sought to enable that to happen. This facility places the horses' needs first, which enables those horses to recover, thrive, and live better lives.

If I can be of any further assistance or answer any questions, please feel free to contact me.
